

Gibson, trading with her, buying feed for her cows and corn for her chickens and veal when Mrs. Gibson had calves., had her cut meat from Lillian Russell's cows and Willie would help skin the cows and feed the chickens and dogs. Then she said something about meat poisoned the cows.

On Friday November 10th, 1922 Mr. Pfeiffer got statement at his New York Office from Nellie Russell and also got records of Phillips testimony when he was committed for perjury in New York.

Information secured on November 16th, 1922 Sept. 7th, 1922 was the last day of Mrs. Russell's commutation ticket. At this time she bought a hat and shoes on 6th Avenue near 30th Street. That on Sept. 8th, 1922 she did not go to the city. Received a special delivery. This was on a Friday. On Sept. 9th, 1922 she might have bought a commutation ticket but it was not used till Monday. Ticket cost $13.20.

On Sunday Sept. 10th, 1922 Mrs. Russell went to Mrs. Gibson to get a telephone number and sent same to the Elegance Dress Costume Company 118 West 47th Street, telephone number Bryant 1545. That she worked on the following days. Monday the 11th, Tuesday the 12th, Wednesday the 13th, Thursday the 14th, Friday the 15th for Mr. Cohen of the Fashion dress Company. Eula is the name of Mrs. Russell's dog. The second time Mrs. Russell got her dog was the last Saturday of September. The dog was missing on the Friday before, and at this time Mrs. Gibson spoke to her about the murder. She also made a comment about a little lantern and Mrs. Gibson said that this was only done to keep him from going away with all that money. Also that on September 14th Mrs. Gibson was wearing a light long coat, which was close fitting.

On November 16th, 1922. Received a letter from Mrs. Russell which was sent to her by the Fashion Company on September 7th, 1922. Also a piece of paper with Mrs. Gibson's telephone number which Willie Gibson gave her. On the Sunday following which would be Sept. 10th is the date of Cecil Battels